Approved For Release 2001/07/27: CIA-RDP75-00149R

WASHINGTON POST AND TIMES HERALD

APR 2 4 1964

By Wilfred Fleisher Special to The Washington Post

STOCKHOLM, April 23 report, and learned in this.

Col. Stig Wennerstrom's "first way that Wennerstrom was involvement in disloyal intelli- providing the German Miliment of Justice today.

incident occurred in 1946 when the Swedish press against the Wennerstrom was named to "blackout" of the trial. represent Sweden at an air show in Moscow. The report Report Censored states that he was contacted icc," who proposed that the Attache in Washington. Swedish officer should "eo-Union."

Asked to Mail Package

mail a package from Moscow which he believes contained radio tubes or something

The American Embassy is strategic bomber base. sued a statement here tonight strom also supplied informal maintains that it was not. tion to Nazi Germany about T Russia during World War II in genee work" was undertaken on behalf of the United States, according to the report of an mission's report, released official Inquiry Commission while the trial of the Swedish released by Sweden's Depart officer is continuing in secret here, evidently is intended According to the report the to allay insistent protests in

The 212-page report was by the American Air Attache eensored before its release in Stockholm and "another and 18 pages removed. They person connected with the dealt principally with Wenner." American intelligence serv-strom's activities as Air 1

There are few revelations operate in intelligence work regarding Wennerstrom's acdirected against the Soviet tual espionage but it is reported that in 1958 he obtained secret information from the " Wennerstrom was asked to Swedish defense staff regarding American Air Force bases which he subsequently passed on to the Russians and similar and undertook to do that he succeeded in gaining admission to an American Wennerstrom is described denying that "any attempt was in the report as "a lone wolf" made by any American au with no accomplices. The rethority" to enlist Wennerstrom port confirms he had contacts. for espionage against the Soviet Union.

The report says Wenner
The r

There's a strong implication the report that Mrs. but remarks that the demarca- Wennerstrom may have had; tion between legal and illegal knowledge of her husband's intelligence during the war spying since a maid testified was "somewhat vague." before the Commission that -Sweden's secret service sue- she overheard the couple diseeeded in breaking the German cussing plans to flee to Switz-code in 1943 according to the erland and change their name.;

CPYRGHT